2) Its Going To Come Down To Portion Control

3) Make (Soda) Water Your Friend.

4) Christmas Is The Perfect Time To Mix Up Your Proteins

5) Lastly – if you are headed to a Christmas party or functions, its super hard to eat remotely healthy sometimes. So if you don't know what you'll be eating, I suggest having a light snack (again protein based) before you get to your party.
